Please use this recommended course sequencing document as a reference point as you work with your academic advisor to plan your schedule this semester and throughout your BBA experience. This guide is intended for students whose primary major and career interests are in finance. There are a number of factors that may impact your optimal course sequencing plan, so please consult with your academic advisor. Investment banking and valuation modeling are rooted in accounting and finance. Interviews for IB internships takes place between sophomore and junior year, so early skill mastery is important for interview preparation.
